House of the Golden Angels: This spectacular Spanish Colonial inspired estate emanates the aura of Old California. Awash in its golden glow as this 1920's revival of Santa Barbara hacienda architecture artfully blends its divine style and captivating charm. Designed around an interior courtyard, set in rich artisanal adobe stone, this estate features over 6,500 sq. feet of brilliant textures and opulent living. This magnificent custom estate features a two-story main residence, and an 825 sq. foot single level detached casita with a set of French doors that open up to an expansive saline pool and spa. An additional 425 sq. foot carriage house is located above a detached three-car garage. Cooling marine breezes and awe-inspiring sunsets bring this masterfully crafted estate's finest attributes to life. Nestled in Santaluz, San Diego's premier coastal golf community, this estate combines its flair of modern antiquity with the finest high-end fixtures and finishings. No expense was spared in bringing this brilliant collector's piece to fruition. An expansive gated interior motor court and courtyard, accented with a custom fountain and Turkish travertine pavers, welcomes every guest to experience this detailed executive estate. Hardwood and stone floors lay throughout this estate boasting: a chef's kitchen, family room, six fireplaces, an outdoor summer kitchen with pavilion, and a media room. Every detail and finishing serves to elevate the intrinsic beauty of this old world sanctuary, making this home an absolute destination for all seeking to bask in the Coastal San Diego lifestyle.
